

Rui Feng, PhD Receives 2008 BOTE Award

December 6, 2008

Dr. Feng, a Research Assistant Professor in the Section on Statistical Genetics in the Department of Biostatistics at UAB, successfully applied for a “Back of the Envelope” (BOTE) Award from UAB’s School of Public Health. The Awards are envisioned as a mechanism to stimulate and support intellectual creativity at the School of Public Health that can lead to the next generation of intellectual excellence and productivity.

Dr. Feng will be recognized at the award reception on Thu 12/11/2008 at 3:30 PM in RPHB 107 and will receive $10,000 for investigative expenses. At the conclusion of the award period each recipient is expected to give one or more BOTE seminars organized by the Dean’s Office to share and disseminate what became of the back of the envelope idea.

This year’s list of recipients and their research topics are below:

1. Dr. Rui Feng: “Genome-wide Association Studies Using Integrated CNV and SNP Information”
2. Dr. David Becker: “Health Insurance, Pensions and Health: Evidence fro Major League Baseball”
3. Dr. Claudiu Lungu: “Use of Multi-Walled Nanotubes for Personal Air Sampling”
4. Dr. Sadeep Shrestha: “Beyond the Failed HIV Vaccines”
