NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

April 15, 2008

The CRHP community is celebrating the 75th birthday of our co-founder, Dr. Raj Aroie!

To mark the occasion, over 27 organizations will celebrate Dr. Aroie's 75th birthday. They will publish a souvenir, articles, stories and wishes from people who have been touched by the work of Dr. Aroie. Thanks to all who have supported the work of CRHP.

Development not equated with charity but rather change in thinking and mind-set

The Comprehensive Rural Health Project, Jamkhed, has been working among the rural marginalized for over 37 years. By partnering with village communities and expanding upon local resources the project aims to effectively meet the immediate and long term needs of especially women. With values of compassion, justice, respect and trust, CRHP works to empower families and communities, regardless of caste, race or religion, through integrated efforts in development.

CRHP, Jamkhed, India, has been a pioneer in developing sustainable comprehensive community-based primary health care (CC-BPHC), which has empowered communities to address their own health problems and development. Its principles are equity, integration and empowerment. The Jamkhed Institute shares this experience with people from all over the world, training leadership in CC-BPHC. More about CRHP at: <http://www.jamkhed.org/>

Connie Gates, MPH (UNC '78) has been working with CRHP, Jamkhed, India – in India and internationally, especially as US representative of CRHP and director of Jamkhed International-North America, to promote the Jamkhed approach of community-based PHC (CBPHC) among students and professionals, NGOs and churches since 1997.
