Presents the 12th Annual GLENWOOD ENDOWED LECTURE

Suzanne Goh, MD, MBA, MSt

April 20, 2016

11:15-12:15 Lecture
12:15-12:30 Q&A

Next Generation Treatment for Autism Spectrum Disorders: From Mitochondria to Music

Dr. Goh, a Pediatric Neurologist, is the Director of Pediatric Neurology Therapeutics, a multidisciplinary clinic dedicated to the medical & behavioral treatment of children with neurodevelopmental disorders in San Diego, CA. She is also the author & co-developer of the ASD Language curriculum. Dr. Goh was a Rhodes Scholar who went on to graduate from Harvard Medical School and has taught at Harvard, Columbia and the University of California San Francisco. She has been an author or reviewer with several leading neuroscience journals and published Spectacular Bond: Reaching the Child with Autism.

Location: UAB Alumni House—1301 10th Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35294

Parking: Available in the UAB Alumni House parking lot
Additional parking available across 13th St. S. in Lot 15D, located next door to the UAB Alumni House & behind the Abroms-Engel Institute for the Visual Arts (AEIVA)

CEUs: 1.0 ABN contact hour through The Deep South Center for Occupational Health & Safety (provider #ABNP0420, expires 1/3/19)
1.25 SW contact hour through the Alabama MCH Leadership Network, provider #0338 for the Alabama State Board of Social Work Examiners

Online Registration: Glenwood.org/2016Lecture

For additional information, contact:
Julie McDougal
jmcdouga@uab.edu or 205-975-0531