Gustavo de los Campos, PhD Receives 2010 BOTE Award

December 12, 2010

Dr. de los Campos, a postdoctoral fellow in the Section on Statistical Genetics in the Department of Biostatistics at UAB, successfully applied for a “Back of the Envelope” (BOTE) Award from UAB’s School of Public Health. The Awards are envisioned as a mechanism to stimulate and support intellectual creativity at the School of Public Health that can lead to the next generation of intellectual excellence and productivity.

Dr. de los Campos was recognized for his achievement at the award reception on Thu 12/9/2010 and will receive ~$20,000 for salary support in 2011. At the conclusion of the award period each recipient is expected to give one or more BOTE seminars organized by the Dean’s Office to share and disseminate what became of the back of the envelope idea.

This year’s list of recipients and their research topics are below:

1. Bisakha (Pia)Sen, PhD (HCOP), Mental Health and Substance Abuse History's Impact on Current Mortgage Situation of Individual
